DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 3-7, 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The words "disrupts" or "disrupting" or "disruptor" do not provide sufficient specific meaning of the invention. Also the claims are indefinite because it is not clear if the disruptions of the starting circuit or switch functions are temporary or permanent and that stops the examiner from applying the prior art in examining these claims. Since the metes and bounds of the claims cannot be determined without speculation as to the meaning of the above listed words, prior art has not been applied to the claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-2 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: claims 1-2 are allowed because the prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest an engine block heating system for an engine having an electric starting circuit comprising a power cord that is selectively connectable to a connector port and a sensor at the connector port for detecting when the power cord is physically connected to the connector port, first and second terminal connections, and a first switch coupled the sensor , wherein the first switch disconnects the terminal connections when the sensor detects that the power cord is coupled to the connector, and interconnects the terminal connections when the power cord is removed from the connector.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

5. Claims 4-6 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Leonid M Fastovsky whose telephone number is 571-272-4778. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th. 8.00 am -6.00 pm.
